

Innovative Measures and Reforms in Tripura University

Presented by
ANJAN K. GHOSH
Vice Chancellor
Tripura University

Innovative Measures and Reforms since 2013

- Digital Library with ebooks and journals
- Library Automation
- Wi-Fi in all Buildings and Hostels
- Innovation Club
- Inspiring Teacher's Group
- Upgradation of Central Instrument Centre
- Automation of financial and accounting
- Establishing Faculty Development Centre
- 2 B.Voc programs in Skill Developments (Rubber Technology and Film and Video Production)

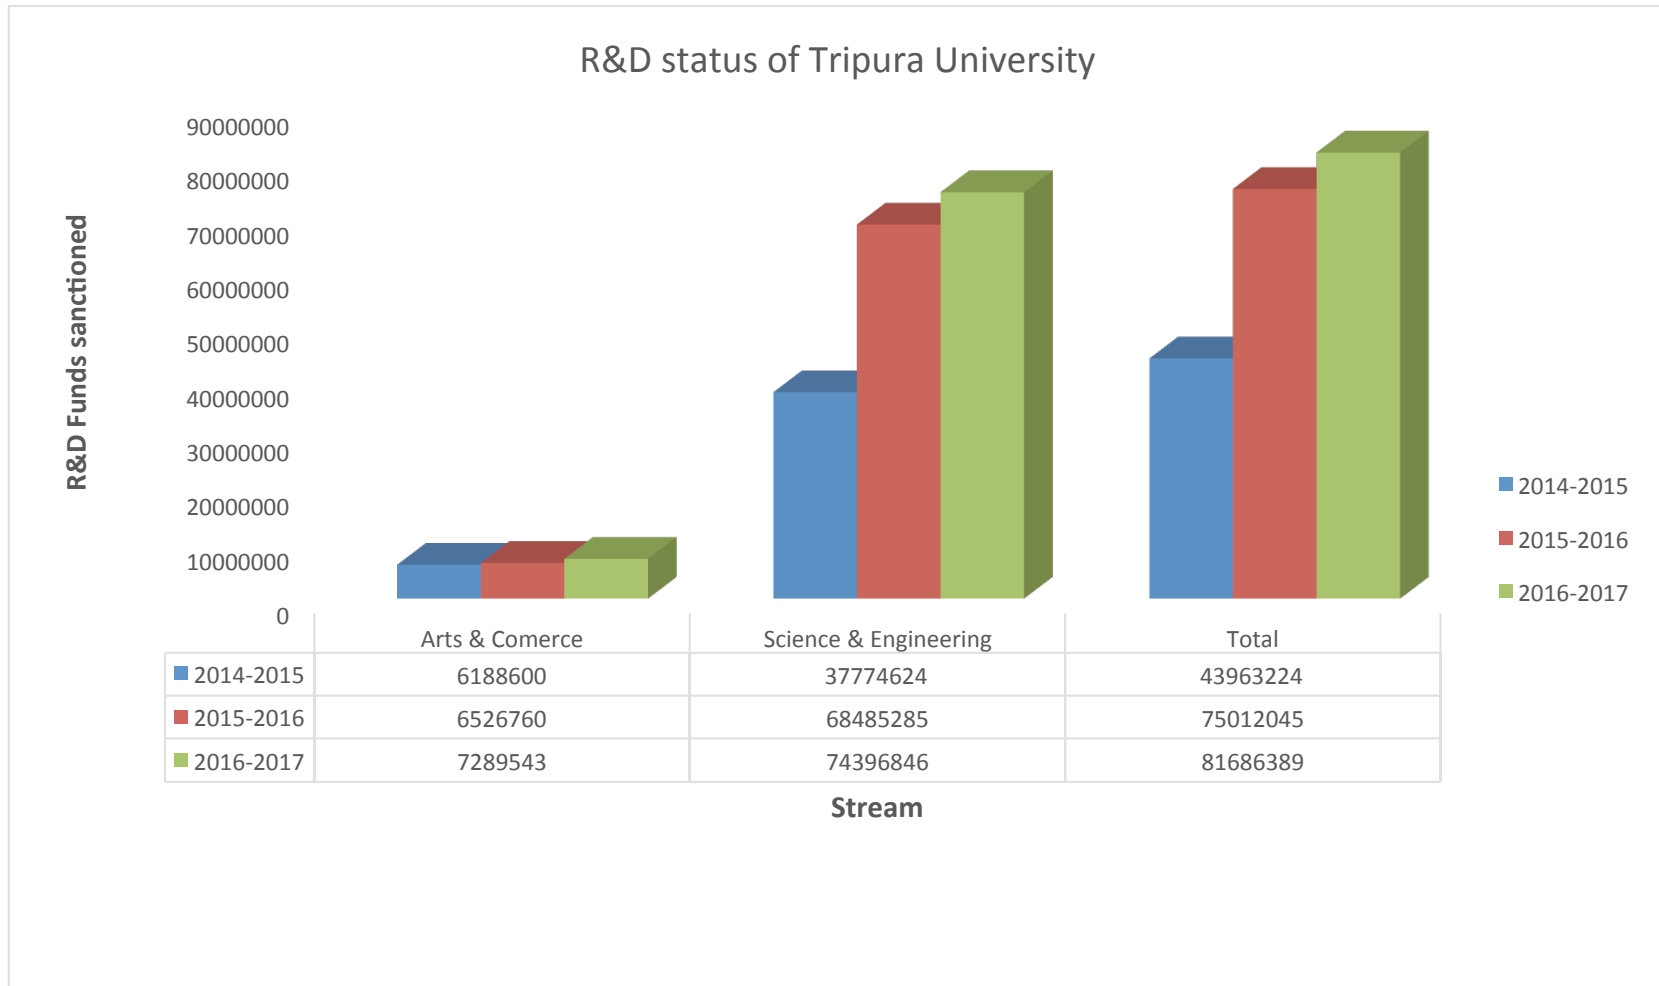

Innovative Measures and Reforms since 2013

- Online Admission Process
- Modernization of PhD rules following UGC
- Encouragement on Attending and Organizing Seminars/Conferences
- Use of NPTEL and MOOC courses
- Development of a few MOOCs
- Use of “Brihaspati” – online course management
- Virtual and e-class rooms
- CBCS

Innovative Measures and Reforms since 2013 (contd.)

- Use of anti-plagiarism software
- PhD in all Depts. and Increase in the number of PhD Scholars
- New Depts.: Engineering (3), Tribal Languages, Indigenous Languages, Linguistics, Library and Information Science, School of Education
- Swachha Bharat Programs
- Adoption of 6 Villages
- Women's Studies and Women's Association
- New Research and Innovation/IPR Policy Adopted

Improvements in Research

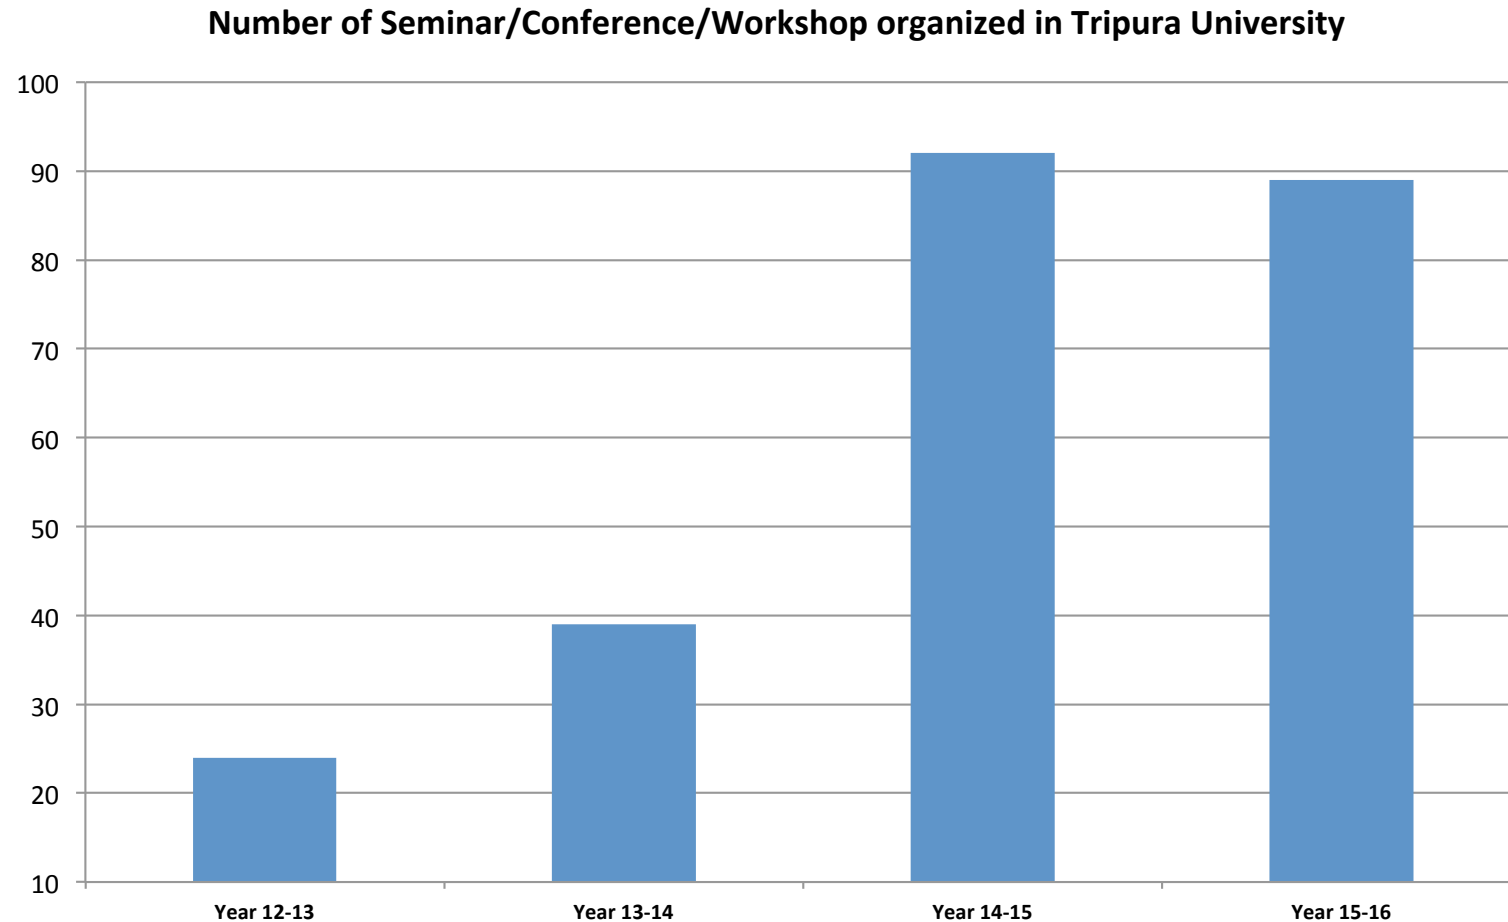

Number of Patents filed = 3

More Publications

Number of Journal Papers published from Tripura University

Conferences Held in Tripura University

Initiatives on Higher Education

- Adopted as many Initiatives of Visitor, MHRD and UGC as possible
- Difficulties faced:
 - Remoteness
 - Supply and Services
 - Lack of Expertise

Thank you