THE WORKSHOP AND THE ORGANISER

The Workshop is an attempt to draft a policy documentation on problems and prospects of traditional tribal weaving in Tripura. To find out the ground reality, facts and phenomena, scope of marketing and future possibilities which may help the State Government, Policy makers, Administrators, Academicians and Researchers.

The University: The inception of Tripura University can be traced back to the establishment of UGC recognised Post-graduate Centre of the University of Calcutta at Maharaja Bir Bikram College in the year 1976. In 1987, Tripura University formally came into being as a State University. In October 2007 it was converted into a Central University. It is located about 9 km away from Agartala City.

The Department: The Department of Geography and Disaster Management, Tripura University was established in December, 2004, as a Post-Graduate Department under the Faculty of Science. Presently the Department offers M.A./M.Sc. course and has developed facilities for research leading to Ph.D. degree.

The Directorate of Handloom, Handicraft and Sericulture (HHS), Government of Tripura:

The Directorate of Handloom, Handicraft and Sericulture was set up under the Department of Industries and Commerce, Government of Tripura to promote the tribal fabrics of the state, which is well known for its elegant design, bold colour combination and lasting texture.

Weavers' Service Centre, Ministry of Textiles, Government of India, Agartala:

The Weavers' Service Centre, Agartala impart training through Integrated Handloom Training Programmes to semi skilled and skilled weavers for product development, product diversification and improvement in productivity to develop new designs as per latest trends keeping the view of Tripura's Tribal Traditional design.
