About Tripura University:

Tripura University epitomizes the aspirations of the state's people for academic excellence at the highest level and a quest for knowledge. The first institution of higher education had commenced functioning from 1947 with affiliation from Calcutta University but in the immediate aftermath of partition, the population of the state registered a steep growth and so did the number of students aspiring for higher education. Subsequently, it was on October 2, 1987, the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi that Tripura University formally came into being as a towering embodiment of the hopes and aspirations of the people. The University was converted into a Central University on 2nd July 2007, under the Tripura University Act, 2006 as enacted by the Parliament.

About the Departments:

Due to lack of infrastructure earlier it was difficult for the students of Tripura to pursue higher studies in an engineering field (M.E/M.Tech) within the state. The long-standing dream of establishing Postgraduate Engineering departments in Tripura University is now reality with the financial assistance received from the H.R.D Ministry, New Delhi. Accordingly the PG course in Computer Science & Engg and Department under the faculty of science have been started on 19th August 2005 with due approval from AICTE. And it is currently offering Doctor in Philosophy (Ph.D) and 2 year M.Tech in Computer Science & Engineering.

The Department of Information Technology at the Tripura University has been started with the objective of promoting research and development, industrial consultancy, and teaching in the frontier areas of Information Technology. The Department offers a unique combination of courses and project that helps the students to cope with the recent advancements in the computer industry and information technology. The Department currently offers Doctor in Philosophy (Ph.D), 2 year M.Tech in Information Technology (IT) and 2 year Masters in Computer Application (MCA) programmes. It was initially started as "School of Information Technology & Computer Science" established in 2002, It was under the Directorate of Professional Studies (DPS) in Tripura University. In 2009 it converted into "Department of Information Technology"
