Priyanka Deb Barman

I was a student of the class of 2012, JMC Department, Tripura University. I always had a dream to see myself in the news desk after completion of my schooling. I gave my first step towards my dream by joining Journalism and Mass Communication Department started by Tripura University in 2009. The department opened avenues for students to acquire learning experiences through knowledge imparting techniques. The JMC department, the ' Knowledge Hub' gives students scope to learn and shine. After passing out of the department of JMC in 2014, I got scope to write for two popular English magazines of the Northeast region. Currently, I am working with Hindustan Times, one of the leading national newspapers of India. Simultaneously, I am also pursuing my PhD from the Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, Tripura University as a part time scholar since 2017. I have won several awards and prizes in my field as a journalist. I love my profession of reporting. My course in JMC helped me a lot. Thanks to my teachers in Tripura University.
